Inter-House

The results for the junior and senior competitions were the same:
1st Place: Orvis 2nd Place: Loomis 3rd Place: Fenwick

The day was rounded off with a staff team challenging the pupils. Perhaps it was not the most beautiful netball, but the competition was certainly intense! The pupils won 9 – 6.

CYCLING

Tarryn Brent finished 6th out of a field of 15 in the final 15km time trial of the SA Road Cycling Championships, which was held in Oudtshoorn on 28th to 30th May 2009.

Congratulations to ex-Stanford teacher, Jack Holloway, who will be inaugurated as President of Rotary, Haenertsburg on Saturday, 6 June.

ALUMNI NEWS

Melanie Moore [2004] graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Communications Management – specialising in Creative Brand Communications as an Art Director. She is one of six who have been chosen to work this year at the advertising agency; TBWA Hunt Lascaris in their young bloods programme.

Hannah Baleta [Head Girl, 2005] is home after her 100 days at sea, delivering a 12-meter catamaran from Cape Town to Tahiti. Well done, Hannah! She hopes to visit the school before she heads off to South America for 2 and a half months, doing volunteer work.

Nicholas Baleta [2007] is also at sea. He is on a Transatlantic crossing from Florida to France, serving as 3rd engineer on a 60-meter motor yacht.

WORK WEEK

The Grade 11 Work Week will need to be organised so that it can take place during either the coming holiday or the September holidays. The Grade 11 parents and pupils need to organise a company/ business or two, that will be prepared to allow their son/daughter to shadow the workers, to learn more about that specific business, over a period of 2 - 5 days. More information will follow shortly. Please contact Mrs Jack if you need more information.

Drama Club Dazzles on Gala Evening

The Drama Club held the gala night of their short plays production last Friday. Students from across the grades strutted their stuff on stage and parents and teachers formed the appreciative audience. The judges certainly had a tough job in choosing the final winners. The results were as follows:

Category	Winner	Runner up
Most promising actor	Jason Stroud	Dylan Jack
Most promising actress	Kholofelo Sekhithla	Michaela McGaffin
Best supporting actor	Puleng Mathabatha	Mpho Dagada
Best supporting actress	Mologadi Monakhisi	Michelle Chitate
Best Actor	Ryan Jack	Matthew Saverton
Best Actress	Xyza Stander	Alexa Skordi
Premiere Awards
Best Play	"The Man Who Wouldn't get to Heaven"	Directed by Kayla McKenzie
Best Director	Xyza Stander	For "The Danes of our Lives"

Congratulations to the evening's winners, as well as all other performers, for their commitment and dedication to excellence. We would also like to thank all the parents and guests for their support. The money raised will go towards establishing a prop room for the Drama Club!

"ROOTS OF ROCK" Production

If you would like to be part of this production, please reserve Wednesday, 17 June for a meeting in the Barnyard at 14h00. All parents are welcome, and more detailed information will be sent to you all next week, explaining where assistance is needed, so that you can choose where to volunteer.

Events in the week ahead ...

- ☉ Wednesday, 10 June – Gr 9 Human Progress Management tests
- ☉ Thursday, 11 June – Gr 8 & 9 Exams start
